WHAT'S HAPPENING AT LIU?

WELCOME TO THE LIU TEAM!

We caught up with our newest staff....

Welcome Ms. Sanders to the LIU family!

Do you enjoy your job? "Yes, I do."

What do others view you as? "As someone who can help them if they need assistance".

How would you describe yourself? "I would describe myself as a hard-working teacher who helps others when they need it".

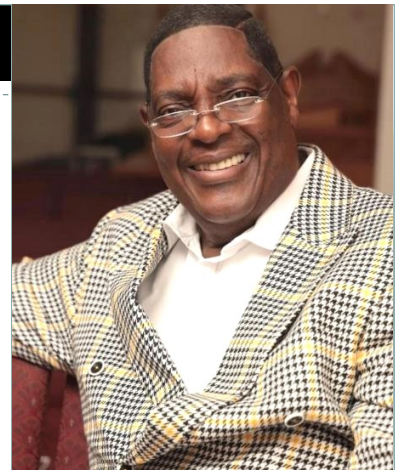

Welcome Ms. Neal (Robotics/Art) to the LIU Family! (no pic)

Why did you decide to take on the position with LIU? "It allows me to get to know my students outside of their academic setting".

When teaching your program, what is the main thing you hope to inspire? "I hope to inspire them to be great leaders".

What do you enjoy about being with LIU? "The ability to help other children".

*FUN FACT.... Ms. Neal is a 2013 alumni of RELC!

OUR GUEST SPEAKERS....

Department of Homeland Security

Trainers - Jamal B., PO Burgos , and PO Sauders

Q. What do we learn/ train about?

A- Fire safety, Policy and Documentation

Trainees from DHS visited LIU to talk about their duties and procedures. According to the recruits, they believe that their supervisors are doing a good job at teaching as they explain things to their understanding.

- According to the trainers, they seem very worthy of the job, they take great notes and collect information well.
- Trainers teach what to do and what not to do in the shelters.
- Trainers are also teaching the basics in law, legal policies and procedures, etc.

CYBERBULLYING

What are your thoughts about cyberbullying???

- Janiyah Holmes

An interview with Dr. G. Seabrooks

“I believe that cyberbullying is wrong, it can give people a negative impact about someone they don't even know”

Dr. Seabrooks thinks that you shouldn't put something up on cyber just because you don't like that person. Bullying in general hurts peoples feelings. These mean comments from cyberbullying causes people to hurt themselves or commit suicide. He believes we should all respect one another and not leave negative comments all over the internet for people to feel bad about themselves or hurt themselves and or one another because of cyberbullying.
